ERIN BODE TO OPEN COFFEE CONCERT SERIES AT THE SHELDON THIS FALL

ST. LOUIS – The Sheldon presents Erin Bode, Tuesday, October 12 and Wednesday, October 13, 2021 at 10 a.m. in the perfect acoustics of the Sheldon Concert Hall. Tickets for Tuesday are very limited, ticket buyers are encouraged to purchase tickets for the Wednesday date.

In the decade-plus since vocalist Erin Bode began her professional recording career, she has garnered critical praise for her pure voice, perfect pitch and impressive phrasing and style. It is this talent, coupled with her ability to transcend genres, that has led to reviews hailing her as “someone you won’t forget.” Sophisticated arrangements and attention to phrasing, both vocal and instrumental, further distinguish her group’s fresh sound. Bode and her band play music from her many album releases and from the Great American Songbook.

Tickets are $18 orchestra / $15 balcony, and are on sale now through MetroTix at 314-534-1111 and through The Sheldon’s website at TheSheldon.org. For more information, call The Sheldon at 314-533-9900 or visit TheSheldon.org.

Beginning September 2, 2021, anyone aged 12 or older, attending a ticketed event at The Sheldon, will be asked to show proof of full vaccination* OR a negative COVID-19 test taken no more than 48 hours before time of entry into the event. Patrons should be prepared to show their vaccination card, or proof of negative COVID test, or a photo of their vaccination card or test results on their mobile devices, before entering The Sheldon.

Ticket buyers have until October 1, 2021 to request a refund for their previously purchased tickets, or by 11:59 p.m. the night before the event, whichever comes first. The Sheldon will also maintain a flexible ticket exchange policy throughout the season to accommodate any health and safety-related concerns.
