FLAMENCO VIVO CONTINUES THE WHITAKER WORLD MUSIC CONCERTS SERIES AT THE SHELTON
-AN EDUCATION SPECIAL IS OFFERED VIRTUALLY AND IN-PERSON FOR STUDENTS-

ST. LOUIS – The Sheldon presents Flamenco Vivo – Tablao, on Saturday, March 26, 2022 at 8 p.m. in the perfect acoustics of the Sheldon Concert Hall. This concert is part of the 2022 Whitaker World Music Concerts series, marking the 4th year of this popular world music showcase, funded with the generous support of the Whitaker Foundation. Through this popular series, the Whitaker Foundation has allowed The Sheldon to take its commitment to “Arts Without Borders” to the international level, connecting St. Louisans to a broad range of world cultures through music.

One of the country’s premier Spanish dance companies, Flamenco Vivo brings the powerful spirit of flamenco to The Sheldon stage. Based in New York, Flamenco Vivo, led by co-founder Carlota Santana, performs throughout the country, building bridges between cultures, performing original choreography and music combined with dramatic, cutting-edge works. Tablao demonstrates flamenco at its most raw and creative – where performers create by instinct and improvisation.

Founded in 1983, Flamenco Vivo serves more than 40,000 people nationwide each year through far-reaching programs that entertain, educate and empower. The company tours extensively, performing at leading theaters and university venues, but also intentionally target underserved communities, including many where they can provide audiences with their first exposure to flamenco.

The Sheldon will offer a special education concert with Flamenco Vivo on Friday, March 25, 2022 at 10:30 a.m. with in-person and virtual viewing options. Teachers and students can register and find more information online at TheSheldon.org.
