TODD SNIDER RETURNS TO THE SHELDON WITH SPECIAL GUEST TOMMY PRINE

ST. LOUIS – The Sheldon presents Todd Snider: The American Troubadour Tour, with special guest Tommy Prine, Saturday, November 19 at 8 p.m. in the perfect acoustics of the Sheldon Concert Hall.

Todd Snider is known for humorous, though often poignant, lyrics delivered in classic troubadour style. A slyly intelligent songwriter, his live shows combine acclaimed musicianship and endearing storytelling for a one-of-a-kind night of modern folk music.

Snider says, “Playing live is the only chance for me to show, ‘This is what I really do.’ I’ve never thought of myself as a recording artist. I’m someone who gets over by traveling around, telling stories, making up new songs and singing them alone onstage.”

Tommy Prine is a Nashville-native, singer/songwriter and performer. He began playing guitar at age 10 and started picking melodies. Though he has crafted his own unique sound over the years, he learned from observing one of the best as the son of the late, legendary multi-Grammy award-winning artist, John Prine.

The watermark of Tommy’s sound comes from his unique finger-picking style combined with soul-stirring songwriting. His debut album has been recorded and is yet-to-be released.

Tickets are $41 orchestra 1 / $36 balcony 1 / $31 balcony 2, and are on sale now through MetroTix at 314-534-1111 and through The Sheldon’s website at TheSheldon.org. For more information, call The Sheldon at 314-533-9900 or visit TheSheldon.org.
