3rd ANNUAL “ST. LOUIS SOUND” MUSIC COMPETITION CANCELLED

ST. LOUIS –Will DeWitt and The Sheldon regretfully announce that the 3rd annual St. Louis Sound Music Competition, including the June 9 Live Finals Event, has been cancelled due to the continuing uncertainty around the coronavirus outbreak.

A contest in the style of “America’s Got Talent” or “The Voice,” and open to amateur and professional musicians alike in rock, pop, country, hip hop, R&B and jazz, St. Louis Sound entrants were invited to submit an original song, to be judged by a panel of experts, culminating in a live finals event with the winner receiving a trip to Nashville and chance to perform at The Sheldon.

Entrants will be automatically refunded their contest entry fees.
