JANE KOSTER NAMED DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT AT THE SHELDON

ST. LOUIS – The Sheldon Arts Foundation is pleased to announce that Jane Koster has assumed the role of director of development as of January 30, 2023. A fundraising professional with nearly 20 years of experience, Koster will lead The Sheldon’s development team in implementing a comprehensive fundraising plan to help fulfill The Sheldon’s mission to ensure that all have access to unique, relevant and inventive experiences that change lives and strengthen our community.

“I am thrilled to be joining the team at The Sheldon to promote and support the organization’s impactful music, visual art and educational programming,” says Koster. “The Sheldon is such a wonderful place – a true gem in our community – and I am eager to ensure that we continue to make shared cultural experiences accessible to everyone.”

Koster has worked with over 100 local, regional and national organizations on projects ranging in scope from annual development plans to multi-million dollar capital campaigns. She has engaged with a variety of organizations and institutions, including arts and cultural institutions, independent schools and universities, hospitals and healthcare institutions, and social service organizations. She has served as a board president, a committee volunteer, and has been an active member of the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP). Koster is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Washington University in St. Louis.
