ST. LOUIS, MO – Due to scheduling conflicts, the Coffee Concerts scheduled for February 20 and 21, 2024, Eleanor & Dario: A Trip Around the World, have been canceled. Replacing them on the series will be local jazz favorite Janet Evra performing a program entitled A Morning In Rio.

Janet Evra returns to The Sheldon in style to perform favorites from the bossa nova and Latin jazz songbooks, as well as her own original music. Evra is an acclaimed jazz vocalist, bassist and bandleader from England now based in St. Louis, who performs on premiere stages across the U.S. and Europe, with recent performances at jazz festivals in Romania, Finland and the United Kingdom to her credit. Evra is signed to Plum Jazz, and her newest release, Almost True, features seven-time GRAMMY-winner Randy Brecker as a special guest.

Tickets are $20 for balcony seats and $23 for orchestra seating. Subscriptions to the five concert Coffee Concerts series are also available.
