ST. LOUIS – As a performer, sought-after singer-songwriter and executive at the Nashville based record label and publishing company, Better Angels Music, Gary Ray is a triple-threat. He is known as an artist with a unique sound, whether country, pop or rock, who has the innate ability to weave moving lyrical tapestries with up-tempo, guitar driven melodies and who isn't afraid to push the envelope when it comes to recording and producing his own music or directing the careers of other up-and-coming singer-songwriters and recording stars. He has toured with and/or opened for artists such as Brantley Gilbert, Lady Antebellum and Miranda Lambert, and he was also a headliner on the Jagermeister Get UR Country On Club Tour.
