FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 21, 2014

THE SHELDON SESSIONS SERIES CONTINUES WITH PATTERSON HOOD OF THE DRIVE-BY TRUCKERS

ST. LOUIS – The Sheldon and 88.1 KDHX present Patterson Hood and special guest Justin Kinkel-Schuster (of Water Liars), Saturday, December 20 at 8 p.m. in the perfect acoustics of the Sheldon Concert Hall. A native of Muscle Shoals, AL, acclaimed singer/songwriter Patterson Hood is best known as a founding member of the band Drive-By Truckers. Hailing from a musical family – Hood’s father David was a member of the legendary Muscle Shoals Rhythm Section – Hood began performing and writing songs at the age of 8. In contrast to the hard-driving sound of the Drive-By Truckers (DBT), Hood’s solo work features poignant lyrics and acoustic arrangements, informed by his personal experiences with family, relationships and career.

In 2012, Hood released his third solo album, Heat Lightning Rumbles In The Distance, that enlisted the talents of all of his DBT bandmates. The album began as a novel about a particularly dark time in his life, but when inspiration to write dried up, he shifted the themes of the book over to these songs.

Single tickets are $25 orchestra/$20 balcony, and are on sale now through MetroTix at 314-534-1111, through The Sheldon’s website at TheSheldon.org, or in person at The Fox Theatre Box Office, 534 N. Grand Blvd. For more information, call The Sheldon at 314.533.9900 or visit TheSheldon.org.
