THE ILLPHONICS RETURN TO THE SHELDON STAGE TO SUPPORT MUSIC FOR LIFELONG ACHIEVEMENT

ST. LOUIS – The Sheldon and KDHX present iLLPHONiCS: A Formal Affair for Charity, Friday, November 25 at 8 p.m. in the perfect acoustics of the Sheldon Concert Hall. The concert is part of The Sheldon Sessions series, an on-going collaboration between The Sheldon and KDHX.

Over the last 10 years, iLLPHONiCS have put themselves at the forefront of the music scene in St. Louis and beyond. With a style all their own, the two-time Riverfront Times Music Award winners for “Best Hip-Hop Group” (2011, 2016) have honed their skills after hundreds of shows, and with experience playing all across the country. The band signed with the Kansas City-based label The Record Machine last year and released their third full-length album, Gone With The Trends, to critical acclaim this April. It debuted at #36 on the national College Music Journal charts.

Music has played a large role in the lives of the members of iLLPHONiCS, so for this event, they’ve decided to partner with Music for Lifelong Achievement (MFLA), an instrument donation program based at The Sheldon. A percentage of the proceeds from this show will be donated to MFLA to help put instruments in the hands of underserved music students in the St. Louis area.

Tickets are $30 orchestra 1/$20 orchestra 2/$15 balcony and are on sale now through MetroTix at 314-534-1111, through The Sheldon’s website at TheSheldon.org, or in person at The Fox Theatre Box Office, 534 N. Grand Blvd. For more information, call The Sheldon at 314-533-9900 or visit TheSheldon.org.
