NATALIE PINSON'S "ALICE" WINS "GOLF THE GALLERIES" BEST HOLE CONTEST

ST. LOUIS – The Sheldon Art Galleries is pleased to announce that artist Natalie Pinson, whose Alice in Wonderland-inspired hole delighted visitors at “Golf the Galleries” this summer, has been named the winner of the Best Hole award, including a $1,000 cash prize, based on public voting throughout the summer.

Natalie Pinson is an artist, designer and visual stylist who earned her B.S. in Interior Design from Middle Tennessee State University with minors in Art and Industrial Studies. Her love of texture, fabric and found objects from the world of interior design played a large role in her design for the hole, simply titled, “Alice.” Pinson brings her innovative design solutions to every project, which have included commercial spaces, residential homes, film and theater sets and public art projects. Her work can be seen at creativeendeavorsstl.com.

The Sheldon Art Galleries will be closed for installation through Monday, September 3, and will open six new exhibits at an all-gallery opening on Friday, October 5 from 5-7 p.m. Through September 4, Libby Reuter and Josh Rowan’s Watershed Cairns installation in the Lucy and Stanley Lopata Sculpture Garden can be viewed by appointment Tuesday – Friday between 12 p.m. and 4 p.m. by calling Rebecca Gunter at 314-533-99900 x18.
