ST. LOUIS – Irish country singer Nathan Carter has catapulted into stardom, charming audiences on guitar, piano and accordion with a unique blend of Celtic, country and pop music. At age 28, he boasts four number one albums, two number one singles, and three number one live performance DVDs. Carter and his Irish band promise a show-stopping mix of songs like “Bridge Over Troubled Water,” “Wagon Wheel,” and a program packed with old country favorites, Irish folk songs and adult contemporary classics. Compared to artists such as Daniel O’Donnell, Michael Bubl  and Tony Bennett, audiences of all ages will enjoy this young Irish artist who is blazing a trail to worldwide success.
