FEYZA EREN PAYS TRIBUTE TO BELOVED VOCALISTS ON COFFEE CONCERT SERIES AT THE SHELDON

ST. LOUIS – The Sheldon presents The Feyza Eren Group, “A Dozen Divas,” Tuesday and Wednesday, November 13 and 14, 2018 at 10 a.m. in the perfect acoustics of the Sheldon Concert Hall. Coffee and pastries are served, starting at 9 a.m., in the beautiful Louis Spiering Room. Internationally acclaimed jazz vocalist Feyza Eren returned to her hometown of St. Louis from Istanbul in 2011, after spending 15 years singing jazz with Turkey’s finest musicians. She has performed at many notable venues in and around St. Louis and in 2015, was featured on HEC-TV’s, I Love Jazz with Don Wolff. She is a performing member of The Sheldon’s “The Sound and Science of Music,” a STEAM-based education program, offering students live theatrical performances about the science of sound. Eren celebrated the release of seven albums from 2014-2016 with Steve Davis, including their most recent 2016 release, Imagination. They are currently working on a new album due for release in 2018.

Born and raised in St. Louis where she graduated with a degree in broadcast journalism, Eren studied classical violin for eight years, and performed in several musical and theatrical productions before turning professional. She sang various styles of music with different groups in St. Louis before moving to Istanbul in 1995, where she performed with renowned Turkish and international musicians. She spent four years singing Turkish music with a popular ethnic/folk group, Ezginin Günlüğü, with which she recorded four albums. She left the group in 2000 to pursue a solo career as a jazz vocalist but also recorded jingles, as well as the theme song for the Turkish feature film, Oyunbozan and the lead female character in the 1998 Warner Brother’s Turkish language version of the animated film, The Quest for Camelot.
