PIANIST AND VOCALIST ELIANE ELIAS RETURNS TO THE SHELDON JAZZ SERIES

ST. LOUIS – The Sheldon presents Eliane Elias, Saturday, March 2, 2019 at 8 p.m. in the perfect acoustics of the Sheldon Concert Hall. Grammy Award-winning pianist and singer Eliane Elias is known for a distinctive style that blends her Brazilian roots with an alluring voice and impressive compositional skills. With a career that spans over 26 albums, Elias has collaborated with artists ranging from opera sensation Denyce Graves to jazz legend Herbie Hancock. Her performance will include her well-loved traditional repertoire, as well as selections from her latest project, Music from Man of La Mancha.

Eliane Elias is heralded as one of jazz music’s finest pianists, offering distinctive renditions of a range of Brazilian music, including intricate bossa nova and moving interpretations of classic tunes by her country’s songwriters. Considered one of the great interpreters of Antônio Carlos Jobim’s music, she has been featured on many concert tributes to Jobim and recorded two albums solely dedicated to the works of the composer, Plays Jobim and Sings Jobim.

Demonstrating her unique gifts as a pianist, singer, composer and arranger as well as melding her talents in jazz, pop, classical and Brazilian music, Eliane Elias is, as JAZZIZ magazine has called her, “a citizen of the world” and “an artist beyond category.”
