KIM FULLER AND CAROLBETH TRUE OPEN COFFEE CONCERT SERIES

ST. LOUIS – The Sheldon presents Kim Fuller & Carolbeth True, “Songs We Can’t Forget,” Tuesday and Wednesday, October 15 and 16, 2019 at 10 a.m. in the perfect acoustics of the Sheldon Concert Hall. Coffee and pastries are served, starting at 9 a.m., in the beautiful Louis Spiering room. Jazz vocalist Kim Fuller and pianist Carolbeth True perform great songs from the 1950s, ‘60s and ‘70s, including well-known songs made famous by Billie Holiday, Nancy Wilson and Stevie Wonder.

Vocalist Kim Fuller has been singing throughout the St. Louis area for over 25 years and has served as opening act for jazz greats such as the Jazz Crusaders, Ramsey Lewis and Pieces of a Dream. She is also a recurring performer in “The Jazz Story,” The Sheldon’s longest running educational program for students, and is a frequent performer with the Galaxy Band.

Carolbeth True has been involved with music education and performance for many years in the St. Louis area. She is a long-time member of the Webster University music faculty and has a large private teaching roster, is an original cast member of “The Jazz Story” educational program at The Sheldon and works with The Muny and the Missouri Choral Directors Association All-State Jazz Vocal Ensemble in the summer. She performs musically with Two Times True, The Carolbeth Group, The Randy Holmes Quintet and The Oikos Ensemble, among others, and accompanies many fine vocalists. True received the Excellence in the Arts Award from the Arts and Education Council, The Riverfront Times and St. Louis Magazine Musician of the Year Awards, as well as Rock Hill Citizen of the Year Award in her home community.

Subscription tickets still available at 314-533-9900. Single tickets are $18 orchestra/$15 balcony, and are on sale now through MetroTix at 314-534-1111, through The Sheldon’s website at TheSheldon.org, or in person at The Fox Theatre Box Office, 534 N.
