ST. LOUIS — The Friends of The Sheldon present John Pizzarelli in a concert benefitting Sheldon Educational Programs, which serve over 30,000 St. Louis area students each year. This very special evening is chaired by Mike Manchisi.

John Pizzarelli has been hailed by The Boston Globe for “reinvigorating the Great American Songbook and re-popularizing jazz,” with a repertoire that expands on the traditional to include Paul McCartney, Joni Mitchell, Neil Young, Tom Waits, Antonio Carlos Jobim and the Beatles. Now, Pizzarelli goes back to his roots, honoring Nat King Cole with a selection of his classics and paying tribute to the legendary musician whose timeless songs have influenced Pizzarelli’s work for more than 25 years.
