ADAM MANESS TRIO CELEBRATES PIANIST DAVE BRUBECK ON SHELDON COFFEE CONCERT SERIES

ST. LOUIS – The Sheldon presents Adam Maness Trio, “Celebrating Dave Brubeck,” Tuesday, January 28 and Wednesday, January 29, 2020 at 10 a.m. in the perfect acoustics of the Sheldon Concert Hall. Coffee and pastries are served, starting at 9 a.m., in the beautiful Louis Spiering room. Dave Brubeck, designated a “Living Legend” by the Library of Congress, was one of the most active and popular musicians in both the jazz and classical worlds. With a career that spanned over six decades, his experiments in odd time signatures, improvised counterpoint, polyrhythm and polytonality remain hallmarks of jazz innovation. The Adam Maness Trio celebrates the 100th anniversary of this jazz legend’s birth with performances of his popular hits such as “Take Five” and “Blue Rondo a la Turk,” along with other great jazz, old and new.

The Adam Maness Trio formed in early 2017 around a mutual love of melody, and joyful improvisation. Featuring Adam Maness on piano, Bob DeBoo on bass, and Montez Coleman on drums, the trio is continually adding new compositions and arranging popular songs in the tradition of the modern piano trio.

Adam Maness is a versatile multi-instrumentalist, songwriter and composer. Born in St. Louis, Missouri, Maness has performed around the globe with award winning artists from a plethora of musical genres. His songs and compositions have been featured on several national and international recordings, television shows and films.

Tickets are $18 orchestra/$15 balcony, and are on sale now through MetroTix at 314-534-1111, through The Sheldon’s website at TheSheldon.org, or in person at The Fox Theatre Box Office, 534 N.
