KATHY MATTEA RETURNS TO THE SHELDON WITH HEARTFELT FOLK MUSIC

ST. LOUIS – The Sheldon presents An Evening with Kathy Mattea, Friday, February 21, 2020 at 8 p.m. in the perfect acoustics of the Sheldon Concert Hall. Singer-songwriter Kathy Mattea is one of today’s most honored Americana artists, with two Grammy wins, four Country Music Association Awards, four #1 country singles, and five gold albums to her credit. Best known for the enduring country hit, “Eighteen Wheels and Dozen Roses,” Mattea draws inspiration from her Appalachian roots, presenting a mix of folk, bluegrass, Celtic, pop and country music in a warm, heartfelt performance.

Hailed by The Washington Post as “one of Nashville’s finest song interpreters,” Kathy Mattea draws inspiration from her Appalachian roots, presenting a mix of folk, bluegrass, Celtic, pop and country music in warm, heartfelt performances. Kathy Mattea’s unmistakable voice explores music’s most basic human essence through timeless melodies and uplifting narratives. A genuine storyteller, Mattea is a torchbearer for often overlooked musical legacies like those of Hazel Dickens and Jean Ritchie. Singer, musician, songwriter, public speaker, activist: Mattea’s music and message have taken her to venues across America from Maine to Alaska, and overseas from England to Morocco, from college campuses to capitol buildings, and from festivals to concert halls.
